

Pablo Picasso (1881 -1973) was a great Painter and a Sculptor

In the early 90s, a lady was walking down a street in France when she noticed him painting on the side walk.

Lady : "Aren't you Pablo Picasso?"

Picasso : "Indeed, I am".

Lady : "Would you paint a portrait of me for a fair price?"

Picasso : "Of course".

A few seconds later, he handed her one of his typical abstract paintings.

Lady : "Wow, that's great".

Picasso : "That'll be 5,000 Francs".

Lady : "5,000 Francs?!"

But this took you only 30 seconds!"

Picasso : "It took me 30 years to paint that in 30 seconds"

"If you are a soldier, you will become a general. If you are a monk, you will become the Pope. Instead, I was a painter and became Picasso." -Pablo Picasso
